

Construct an "unfolded" hypercube (see Exercise 13 in Section 6.2). Figure out which faces would connect to which if we were able to fold it back into the hypercube, and color-code matching faces.

Write a page or so explaining the basic idea of the hypercube, why this is what it looks like "unfolded", and how you figured out which faces would connect to which.