

To show that H is a group under the operation of G , I need to show that it

1. is closed under the group operation of G
2. is associative under the group operation of G
3. has an identity
4. satisfies that every element in H has an inverse also in H .

September 20, 2002