

Write a speculation on the 4th dimension. Be creative – think about what movement in the 4th dimension would be like, for instance. You may want to discuss how constrained life in the 3rd dimension would seem to residents of the 4th dimension. Be sure to really think about the ideas we've studied and to incorporate them into your musings. Your story or essay must, of course, have some basis in mathematics.