

1. Shape the playdough into an interesting shape
2. Use dental floss to cut into cross-sections 1 cm wide
(the squares on the graph paper are 1 cm wide)
3. Trace each cross-section on the graph paper and approximate the area
4. Use this to approximate the volume of each section
5. Estimate the total volume of your playdough