

Hood Ice Cream has agreed to donate gobs of ice cream to Wheaton (we wish!) . The only catch is that they are only going to donate one flavor.

The choices they give us:

- A) Vanilla Avalanche,
- B) Biscotti Bliss,
- C) Rainforest Crunch.

The entire student body (assume 1500 students) is asked to rank these 3 flavors.

Ballots are sorted into identical piles, and then counted.

The result looks like:

	210 chose	400 chose	20 chose	490 chose	20 chose	360 chose
1st Place	A	A	B	B	C	C
2nd Place	B	C	A	C	A	B
3rd Place	C	B	C	A	B	A

This is called preference schedule.

With all due apologies to Hood Ice Cream for using names of various different brands, all in the interests of alphabeticity.
